

NATIONAL WEBINAR ON WOMEN & SOCIAL MEDIA

The importance of social media has been increasing in the 21st century. It is seen that women are very active on social media as they are very expressive. Women's leadership in social networks can change old stereotypes, generating a real impact on media, advertisement and entertainment. So, it is believed that women will mark trends from now on, since they have typically adapted more and better to the technology. This webinar concentrates on some significant aspects in the broader field of "Women and Social Media". It consists of two presentations by eminent scholars in the field; the presentations are to be followed by interactive sessions.
